What you need to know about the To Do List and your 2009-2010 financial aid

In Student Self-Service in MaineStreet, you will find your To Do List. You need to check this list frequently to make sure that your university has everything it needs from you in order to process your application for financial aid for 2009-2010. If any items are currently missing or incomplete, your To Do List will identify them for you.

Be sure to click on details to see each item in your To Do List.