The primary duties and responsibilities of the Committee shall be to:

1. Have oversight of and recommend for approval the framework governing the System’s human resource policies.

2. Review and recommend for approval the System policies for non-represented employees and policies for human resources areas not subject to collective bargaining.

3. Periodically assess the framework governing employee benefit plans.

4. Review and recommend for approval the strategies and goals for the negotiation of collective bargaining agreements.

5. Recommend for approval the appointments of the Presidents.

6. Review and recommend for approval collective bargaining agreements.

7. Review and recommend for approval general wage and salary adjustments for non-represented employee groups.

8. Review and advise the Chancellor or Board Chair regarding sensitive, complex personnel issues.

9. The Chair of the committee serves as a member of the Chancellor Review Group in accordance with Board policy 203.1.

10. The Chair of the committee conducts the annual evaluation of the Board Chair.
Membership of the Committee

The Human Resources and Labor Relations Committee shall be made up of at least three voting members of the Board of Trustees. The Chair and Vice-Chair of the Board and the Chancellor shall be ex-officio members, but the Chancellor shall have no vote. The Human Resources and Labor Relations Committee can only include persons who are members of the Board.

Meetings

The meetings of the Committee ordinarily shall be called by the Committee Chair, but may be called by the Chair of the Board or a majority of the Committee.

Staff to the Committee

The Human Resources and Labor Relations Committee shall be staffed by the Chief Human Resources and Organization Development Officer.
