5. BACKGROUND:

   Non-represented employees in the following categories are in positions which are not covered by collective bargaining agreements. Compensation and employment policies for these employees are recommended by the Chancellor and approved by the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees approved compensation increases for Non-represented Salaried and Hourly staff at its July 2019 meeting. The following groups have not been approved for compensation increases.

   a. Management Group, positions at or above the level of dean;
   b. Non-Represented Faculty, excluding Law Faculty, full-time and part-time non-represented faculty;
   c. Presidents

   The Chancellor recommends wage, salary and benefit adjustments for non-represented employees in these categories for FY2020 and FY2021 as follows:

   Salaries

   The following describes pay increases available to eligible employees in each category. These employees may also be eligible for individual pay increases under existing policies such as promotion, reclassification, the addition of significant increased responsibilities, retention, and correction of inequities.

   To be eligible for an increase described below an employee must be actively employed and receiving pay in the pay period in which the increase is processed. To be eligible for the FY2020 increase, employees must have been employed in a regular status as of June 30, 2019. To be eligible for the FY2021 increase, employees must have been employed in a regular status as of June 30, 2020.

   8/27/19
Non-Represented Faculty Including Law Faculty

- For full-time non-represented faculty, salary increases, health plan premiums and any other benefit changes will be equivalent to what the faculty members would receive if they were included in the full-time faculty bargaining unit.

- For non-represented part-time faculty, salary increases and any other benefit changes will be equivalent to what the faculty members would receive if they were included in the part-time faculty bargaining unit, unless otherwise indicated below.

- Effective July 1, 2019, Law School faculty will receive an across-the-board increase of 3%. Effective July 1, 2020, Law School faculty will receive an across-the-board increase of 3%.

Management Group and Presidents

- FY2020 each president and the Chancellor will have an amount equal to 3% of the salary base for that group of employees, to be distributed by the president and Chancellor on the basis of performance, to correct inequities and for retention. All increases awarded from this pool will be effective July 1, 2019.

- FY2021 each president and the Chancellor will have an amount equal to 3% of the salary base for that group of employees, to be distributed by the president and Chancellor on the basis of performance, to correct inequities and for retention. All increases awarded from this pool will be effective July 1, 2020.

Health Insurance Plan and Wellness Incentive

Non-Represented Hourly, Non-Represented Salaried, Non-Represented Faculty, Law Faculty, Non-Represented Part-time Faculty, Management Group, Presidents and Chancellor:

Health plan provisions and premium share and wellness program incentives will be modified if necessary to manage the increase in the group health plan for calendar year 2020. Plan modifications will be reviewed by the Employee Health Plan Task Force and to the extent possible will be consistent with the pathways established by the Task Force.

The Human Resources/Labor Relations Committee approved this recommendation to be forwarded to the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees for approval at the August 30, 2019 meeting.

6. TEXT OF PROPOSED RESOLUTION:
   That the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees approve the recommendation for the Non-Represented Compensation and Benefit changes for FY2020 and FY2021 as presented.
