

Week of March 15

Trustees,

I hope you're enjoying this beautiful sunny first weekend of the northern New England spring. I appreciate that you have a significant amount of material to review before tomorrow's Board meeting, so I'll hold my report of recent happenings across the System for then.

Regards,
Dan