Direct Student Loan - The U.S. Department of Education's federal student loan program is the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program. Under this program, the U.S. Department of Education is your lender. There are four types of Direct Loans available:

1. Direct Subsidized Loans - loans made to eligible undergraduate students who demonstrate financial need to help cover the costs of higher education at a college or career school.
2. Direct Unsubsidized Loans - loans made to eligible undergraduate, graduate, and professional students, but eligibility is not based on financial need.
3. Direct PLUS Loans - loans made to graduate or professional students and parents of dependent undergraduate students to help pay for education expenses not covered by other financial aid. Eligibility is not based on financial need, but a credit check is required.
4. Direct Consolidation Loans - allow students to combine all their eligible federal student loans into a single loan with a single loan servicer.

Nursing Student Loan - The Nursing Student Loan Program is like the Perkins Loan Program except that only nursing students are eligible borrowers. The institution administers the program.

Perkins Loan - The Perkins Loan Program was a low-interest federal loan program for undergraduate or graduate students with exceptional financial need. Both interest and principal repayments are deferred during time of attendance (assuming at least half-time status while enrolled). Repayment begins nine months after graduation or last attendance. The institution administers the program. Note: the authority for schools to make new Perkins Loans ended September 30, 2017. Final disbursements were permitted through June 30, 2018. Students can no longer receive Perkins Loans.

Pell Grant - The Pell Grant is the basic program of federal grant assistance to undergraduate students of exceptional financial need. The Federal government administers the program. Grant amounts vary according to institutional costs, number of credits taken, and individual eligibility determinations. The maximum Pell Grant award was $6,195 for 2019-20.

Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG) - SEOG is a program of grant assistance for undergraduate students of exceptional financial need. The institution administers the program. Federal funding is dependent upon an institutional application to the Department of Education. The current institutional match is 25%.

Federal Work Study (FWS) - FWS is a program to provide part-time employment to full-time and part-time undergraduate, graduate, and professional students with financial need. Jobs may be on-campus or with off-campus public or private not-for-profit agencies. This program promotes community service work and employment related to the student's field of study. The institution administers the program. Federal funding is dependent upon an institutional application to the Department of Education.

If the loan recipient does not meet the service requirements, however, the loan must be repaid with interest. The program is administered by the Education Division of the Finance Authority of Maine (FAME). More information is available here:
