

Important Information for Special Retirement Incentive (SRI) Eligible Faculty - Retiree Health

The University of Maine System (UMS) is offering a one-time open enrollment period for faculty eligible for the Special Retirement Incentive (SRI). This special open enrollment period is available to faculty members eligible for the SRI program. In order to participate in the retiree health plan option, you must be enrolled in the University's group health plan prior to retirement. This special open enrollment window provides that opportunity.

Benefits Options Include:

Medical, Dental, Life insurance conversion option, and EyeMed vision discount plan at no cost when you enroll in the Northeast Delta Dental plan.

Key Dates:

Eligible faculty planning to retire prior to December 31, 2022, may participate in the Special Open Enrollment Period beginning May 15, 2022, through June 15, 2022. Coverage begins July 1, 2022.

Faculty who are planning to retire in 2023 will enroll in the UMS health plan during the annual open enrollment period in November 2022. Coverage begins January 1, 2023.

Questions?

If you are interested in enrolling during this special open enrollment period or need additional information, please contact the Employee Benefits Center at 207-973-3373.

